Each Owner of a Unit in the Condominium will own its Unit in fee simple absolute and, in addition, will own an undivided fee simple interest in the Common Elements as a tenant in common with the other Unit Owners.

V. UNIT BOUNDARIES: The boundaries of each Unit are as follows:

(a) Upper and Lower (horizontal) Boundaries:

The upper and lower boundaries of the Units are the following boundaries extended to their respective intersections with the vertical (perimetric) boundaries:

(1) Upper Boundary: The horizontal plane of the bottom surface of the ceiling joists except where there is a dropped ceiling, in which case the upper boundary is the horizontal plane which includes the top side of the wallboard of the dropped ceiling.

(2) Lower Boundary: The horizontal plane of the top surface of the subflooring of the Unit. In Units where two levels of the Unit are directly connected by an interior stairway, the upper and lower boundaries refer to such boundaries with respect to each such level; subflooring together with the ceiling joists dividing the two levels are part of the Common Elements.

(b) Vertical (perimetric) Boundaries: The vertical boundaries of the Unit are the vertical planes which include the back surface of the wallboard of all walls bounding the Unit extended to their respective intersections with each other and with the upper and lower boundaries.

(c) Apparatus: The Unit includes the heating and air-conditioning apparatus serving only that Unit (whether or not located within the Unit boundaries). Any portion of a utility system or other apparatus which serves more than one Unit (e.g., pipes, conduits, ducts) and which is located partially within and partially outside of the Unit is part of the Common Elements. Any portion of a utility system which serves only one Unit but which is located outside of the Unit is a Limited Common Element appurtenant to that Unit.

(d) Maintenance Responsibilities: Notwithstanding the ownership of the various portions of the Common Elements and the Units by virtue of the foregoing boundary descriptions, the provisions of the By-Laws, attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit "C", shall govern the division of maintenance and repair responsibilities between the Unit Owner and the Unit Owners' Association (as defined in Section XIX hereof).

VI. COMMON ELEMENTS: The Common Elements of the Condominium shall include all portions of the Condominium other than the Units. Pursuant to Section 55-79.55 of The Condominium Act, each Unit in the Condominium has been allocated an equal percentage of interest in the Common Elements of the Condominium ("Common Element Interest"). Attached as Exhibit "B" hereto and made a part hereof by reference is a schedule listing the Units in Phase I by their identifying numbers and respective shares of Common Element Interest.

VII. LIMITED COMMON ELEMENTS: Limited Common Elements, if any, shall be those specified in Section 55-79.50(e) of The Condominium Act, those marked and identified on the Plans attached hereto as Exhibit "E", and those created in accordance with Section 55-79.57 of the Condominium Act.

VIII. ASSIGNMENT OF LIMITED COMMON ELEMENTS: The Declarant reserves the right to assign any Common Element for the exclusive use of a specific Unit Owner as a Limited Common Element in accordance with the provisions of Section 55-79.57 of The Condominium Act, by making such an assignment in the Deed to the Unit to which such designated Limited Common Element shall become appurtenant and subsequently confirming such assignment by recording among the land records of Fairfax County, Virginia an appropriate amendment to this Declaration or to the Plans.

IX. DESIGNATION OF RESERVED COMMON ELEMENTS: The Board of Directors of the Unit Owners' Association (the "Board of Directors") shall have the power in its discretion to: (i) designate from time to time any portion of the Common Elements (not designated by Declarant pursuant to Article VIII herein) as "Reserved Common Elements"; (ii) grant reserved rights therein to the Unit Owners' Association and to any one or fewer than all of the Unit Owners; and (iii) establish a reasonable charge to such Unit Owner(s) for the use and maintenance thereof. Such designation by the Board of Directors shall not be construed as a sale or disposition of the Common Elements.

X. OPTION TO EXPAND CONDOMINIUM: Declarant hereby expressly reserves unto itself and its successors and assigns the option and right to expand this Condominium in accordance with to Section 55-79.63 of The Condominium Act and the provisions of this Article X.

(a) Expansion of the Condominium shall be at the sole option of the Declarant and shall not require the consent of any Unit Owner or Mortgagee (as defined in the By-Laws).

(b) This option to expand the Condominium project shall expire seven (7) years after the date of recordation of this Declaration if not sooner exercised; however, the Declarant may, at any time prior to the expiration of such period, terminate its option to expand the Condominium by recording among the land records of Fairfax County, Virginia an executed and notarized document terminating this option.

(c) The metes and bounds of that property which may be added to this Condominium is set forth in Exhibit "A-1" attached and made a part hereof by reference and hereinafter referred to as "Additional Land".

(d) The Declarant expressly reserves the right to add any or all portions of the Additional Land to the Condominium at any time, at different times, in any order, without limitation; provided, however, that the Additional Land shall not exceed the total area of all of that parcel described in Exhibit "A-1". Both the Submitted Land and Additional Land are graphically depicted on Exhibit "D" to this Declaration.

(e) At such time as the Condominium is expanded, the maximum number of Units on the Additional Land will not exceed seventy-five (75) Units. The maximum number of Units in the Condominium, as a whole, shall not exceed ninety (90) Units.

(f) The Declarant expressly reserves the right to create Common Elements upon the Additional Land which may be subsequently assigned as Limited Common Elements. The Declarant makes no assurances as to the type, size or maximum number of such Common Elements or Limited Common Elements.

(g) The Declarant makes no assurances as to the location on the Additional Land of buildings in which Units are located.

(h) All Units to be created on any portion of the Additional Land shall, except for model Units or administrative offices of the Declarant, be restricted exclusively to residential use.

(i) The Declarant reserves the right to construct recreational facilities, administrative offices, and other such ancillary facilities on such portion or portions of the Additional Land as it deems necessary, but the Declarant makes no assurances that such improvements will be compatible in quality, materials and style with the improvements on the Submitted Land. However, in accordance with the Proffers, the Declarant agrees to use brick trim on the aggregate walkways throughout the Condominium.

(j) The Units to be created in the improvements on the Additional Land will be reasonably compatible in quality with the improvements on the Submitted Land but need not be the same materials or style. No assurances are made by the Declarant as to the size or type of Units that may be created in the future on the Additional Land. However, in accordance with the Proffers, Units shall be constructed using "Grand Manor" shingles, or their equivalent, for roofing.

(k) The allocation of Common Element Interests for Units created on the Additional Land shall be on an equal basis. Therefore, in the event that the Condominium is expanded to include any portion of the Additional Land, the Common Element Interests of all Units in the Condominium shall be based on an equal proportion (including all Units added on the Additional Land).

(l) In the event the Declarant does not add or adds and then subsequently withdraws all or any portion of the Additional Land in accordance with Sections 55-79.54(b) and 55-79.54(d) of The Condominium Act, the Declarant shall nevertheless have the unrestricted right to demolish, construct, alter and operate without restriction, and for any lawful purpose, any improvements located on the Additional Land.

(m) The Declarant expressly reserves the right to create Convertible Lands or Withdrawable Lands, or both, within any portion of the Additional Land added to the Condominium, in accordance with Sections 55-79.54(b) and 55-79.54(d) of The Condominium Act. No conversion on convertible land shall occur, however, after seven (7) years from the recordation of this Declaration, in accordance with Section 55-79.61 of The Condominium Act.
